

Interim Report Detailed Marking Criteria - 20% of FYP Module Mark

N.B. Applies to Aerospace, Bioengineering, and General Engineering Interim Reports

Logical structure and clarity of writing, production standard of report (20% of the overall Interim Report Mark)	Mark out of 10
Little or no logical structure, poor sentence construction, difficult to extract information. Little attempt to present the report in a consistent and intelligible format, little referencing and incorrect if any use of technical terms.	0.0 – 3.5
Poorly structured, confusing prose, information can be extracted with perseverance. Patchy presentation, frequent errors in formatting compromising meaning and readability, mistakes in referencing and use of technical terms.	4.0 – 4.5
Satisfactory structure to report, prose conveys information successfully, occasionally confusing. Satisfactory presentation, minor errors in spelling and formatting but text conveys meaning, satisfactory use of referencing and technical terms.	5.0 – 5.5
In general, well-structured, and well written. High standard of production, infrequent production errors, clear and labelled diagrams, good use of referencing and technical terms few mistakes.	6.0 – 6.5
Clear and logical presentation, articulate prose, interesting to read. Excellent standard of production, report set out in clear and attractive format, few, if any, errors, few if any mistakes in referencing and technical terms.	7.0 – 7.5
Outstanding presentation that reads like a scientific article or professional technical report. Outstanding standard of production, clear and attractive format, no errors in spelling, formatting, referencing or technical terms.	8.0 – 10.0
Setting the Context (30% of the overall Interim Report Mark) Literature Review, Market Intelligence, User Design Requirements, as appropriate	Mark out of 10
Little or no evidence of review.	0.0 – 3.5
Patchy review, overview of few relevant papers (where they exist), market intelligence with no critical appraisal.	4.0 – 4.5
Satisfactory review, concise review of relevant papers (where they exist), limited critical appraisal.	5.0 – 5.5

Good, concise review of relevant papers, some critical appraisal, set into the context of the project.	6.0 – 6.5
Excellent review, concise critical review, set into the context of the project, identifying gaps in knowledge.	7.0 – 7.5
Outstanding review of publication quality.	8.0 – 10.0
Summary of Progress to Date (30% of the overall Interim Report Mark)	Mark out of 10
Little or no evidence of plan of summary of progress.	0.0 – 3.5
Patchy, some evidence of progress but lacking continuity.	4.0 – 4.5
Satisfactory, concise, and coherent summary of progress to date.	5.0 – 5.5
Good, concise, and coherent summary set into the context of the project	6.0 – 6.5
Excellent, concise, and coherent summary set into the context of the project with a view to future work.	7.0 – 7.5
Outstanding progress, many project goals already achieved.	8.0 – 10.0
Forward Plan (20% of the overall Interim Report Mark)	Mark out of 10
Little or no evidence of forward plan.	0.0 – 3.5
Patchy, some evidence of forward plan but vague and/or confused.	4.0 – 4.5
Satisfactory, concise, and coherent forward plan with some specified objectives.	5.0 – 5.5
Good, concise, and coherent forward plan with clearly defined objectives	6.0 – 6.5
Excellent, concise, and coherent summary, clearly defined objectives, set into the context of the project.	7.0 – 7.5
Outstanding summary, professional quality project plan.	8.0 – 10.0